Description and how to apply
36 Public &amp; Human Rights and 36 Employment – Applications Invited for Probationary Tenancy 36 Group is a large and long-established barristers' chambers whose members possess formidable strengths in Commercial, International Trade and Shipping, Family, Public &amp; Human Rights, and Crime, with state-of-the-art facilities and a friendly, solution-driven approach to client service and practice development and management. Many of our members are recognised as leaders in the profession. 36 Public &amp; Human Rights (36 P&amp;HR) is the specialist team within 36 Group, dedicated to public law and human rights. Our areas of expertise include administrative law, education, immigration, asylum and nationality, housing, judicial review, and public inquiries. 36 Employment is our specialist employment law team, covering the full spectrum of employment work, and our members advise and act for both claimants and respondents. 36 P&amp;HR and 36 Employment invite applications for probationary tenancy at 36 P&amp;HR and/or 36 Employment. Those applying should demonstrate a genuine commitment to either or both of these practice areas, supported by substantial experience gained during or prior to pupillage.

At 36 P&HR and 36 Employment we offer a guaranteed income for successful applicants in their six months of probationary tenancy. We recruit probationary tenants in the expectation that they will apply for full tenancy after six months.

The deadline for applications is 1600 on Friday 30th May 2025.

Please contact Charlie Labrum and Karen Reid with any enquiries or to make an application.
